Tavener, Buchanan and other Democratic congressmen in Illinois seem to have lost in the Republican landslide. Tavener's district is overwhelmingly Republican normally and he went in four years ago and two years ago when the Progressives split his opposition. Munitions interests were specially anxious to get Tavener because he co-operated with Henry Ford in circulation of millions of copies of speeches attacking U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Hudson Maxim and others. Illinois Manufacturers' ass'n made a special target of Tavener because of his "anti-stop-watch" bill. Niels Juul probably defeated Frank Buchanan.

On the other hand, a lot of head work goes on in a nail factory,

TUMULTY WAKES WILSON WITH CHEERING NEWS

Asbury Park, N. J., Nov. 8.—Sec'y Tumulty told President Wilson early today that at 7:30 the president could feel assured that he had a minimum of 264 electoral votes—two less than necessary to elect—and that "things were constantly looking better."

With the result of the election still in doubt, President Wilson this afternoon went out for a golf game.

Mrs. Wilson, who throughout the morning had directed the packing of things preparatory to moving back to Washington this week, accompanied the president to the links.

SOCIALIST MAYOR WINNER IN MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis, Minn., will elect Van Lear, Soc., by a 15,000 plurality for mayor, it was stated at national headquarters of the Socialist party here. Vermont elected one Socialist member to the state legislature and California two, Adolph Germer, national secretary, said.

THREE SOCIALISTS FOR HOUSE

The next house will have a membership of three Socialists as a gain of 86 per cent. The three are Victor L. Berger of Wisconsin, a former congressman and the first Socialist who ever sat in the halls of congress; W. H. Gaylord, also of Milwaukee, Wis., and Meyer London of New York (re-elected).
